Call For Submissions: Young Creators Showcase A TIFF Next Wave shorts programme!

TIFF Next Wave brings young creators, film lovers, and emerging artists together to explore new perspectives and voices in film. The TIFF Next Wave Film Festival is now accepting submissions for a short-film programme! If you are a filmmaker aged 14-25 and have a short film, submit your work by filling out this google form \(click here\).

We want a programme that highlights the dynamism and diversity of young creators from across Canada and are excited to showcase a mix of voices, visions, and methods of storytelling that will excite, engage, and inspire our Next Wave audience. The films will screen online as part of the TIFF Next Wave Film Festival, February 12-15, 2021.

DEADLINE: Submissions are due by December 4, 2020.

If you have any questions, email us at nextwave@tiff.net

Submission Criteria:

- Submissions are open to Canadian creators, aged 14-25 at the time the film was made
- All films submitted must have been completed in 2019 or 2020
- Filmmakers are encouraged to submit films no longer than 20 minutes
- All types of filmmaking are welcome including short fiction, animation, experimental, music video, documentary, etc.
- TIFF Next Wave programmers will select the final programme to screen online at the TIFF Next Wave Film Festival, and will notify all filmmakers by December 21, 2020
