

PERIOD PROTECTION INVESTIGATION ACTIVITY SHEET

You will be given information on a type of period product. Fill in the answers and prepare to present to the rest of the class. You will then fill in the remaining boxes by listening to the information presented by other students.

PADS

Describe what the period protection looks like.
How does it work?
How is it used?
Are there different types or varieties? What are they for?
How do you dispose of it?
Extension: what are the benefits and disadvantages of this period product?

You will be given information on a type of period product. Fill in the answers and prepare to present to the rest of the class. You will then fill in the remaining boxes by listening to the information presented by other students.

TAMPONS

Describe what the period protection looks like.
How does it work?
How is it used?
Are there different types or varieties? What are they for?
How do you dispose of it?
Extension: what are the benefits and disadvantages of this period product?

You will be given information on a type of period product. Fill in the answers and prepare to present to the rest of the class. You will then fill in the remaining boxes by listening to the information presented by other students.

PANTY LINERS

Describe what the period protection looks like.
How does it work?
How is it used?
Are there different types or varieties? What are they for?
How do you dispose of it?
Extension: what are the benefits and disadvantages of this period product?

You will be given information on a type of period product. Fill in the answers and prepare to present to the rest of the class. You will then fill in the remaining boxes by listening to the information presented by other students.

MENSTRUAL CUP

Describe what the period protection looks like.
How does it work?
How is it used?
Are there different types or varieties? What are they for?
How do you dispose of it?
Extension: what are the benefits and disadvantages of this period product?

You will be given information on a type of period product. Fill in the answers and prepare to present to the rest of the class. You will then fill in the remaining boxes by listening to the information presented by other students.

PERIOD PANTS

Describe what the period protection looks like.
How does it work?
How is it used?
Are there different types or varieties? What are they for?
How do you dispose of it?
Extension: what are the benefits and disadvantages of this period product?

