

BETTY BRENNAN

Owner & CEO

Betty has led the Taylor Studios team since 1991, creating timeless exhibits for museums and nature centers across the country. She has coordinated and facilitated over 480 projects in the last 27 years ranging from $500 to over $3 million each. As president and owner, she implements strategic goals and objectives while providing direction and leadership toward the achievement of the company's philosophy, mission, and strategy.

An active contributor, Betty stays highly involved in the nature and business communities. She's been recognized as 2016's Most Innovative Business Leader by AI Magazine, featured in Success Magazine, nationally recognized on the Inc. 500, regionally famed as an Outstanding Woman You Should Know by local media, and published in a confetti of other resources. Under her leadership, Taylor Studios continues to innovate and thrive in the exhibition industry.
