All of your orders are self-directed and you are solely responsible for determining whether any investment, investment strategy or related transaction is appropriate for you based on your personal investment objectives, financial circumstances and risk tolerance.

You understand that by agreeing to open and maintain an Account, you consent to electronic delivery of all documents and communications associated with your Account-

6. Clearing and Custody

6.1 Clearing and Custody. You understand that as an introducing broker, CCM does not handle cash and does not directly execute trades. Your cash is held by Coinbase Inc., and governed by the Coinbase User Agreement (https://www.coinbase.com/legal/user_agreement/united_states). All securities in your Account are cleared and carried by the Carrying Broker. CCM has entered into a clearing agreement with the Carrying Broker whereby CCM will introduce your Account to the Carrying Broker, and the Carrying Broker will clear all transactions on a fully-disclosed basis. You understand that the Carrying Broker carries your Account and is responsible for the clearing and bookkeeping of transactions but is not otherwise responsible for the conduct of CCM.

6.2 Instructions. You agree that until receipt of written notice from you to the contrary, the Carrying Broker may accept from CCM, without inquiry or investigation, (i) orders for the purchase or sale of securities for your Account, and (ii) any other instructions concerning your Account.

6.3 Hold Harmless. You agree further to hold CCM and the Carrying Broker harmless from and against any losses, costs or expenses arising in connection with any actions taken by the Carrying Broker in accordance with this provision. You understand and agree that CCM is not responsible and will not be liable for the Carrying Broker's actions. You understand and agree to resolve any disputes you have with the Carrying Broker directly.

7. Security

7.1 Password Security. You are responsible for creating a strong password and maintaining security and control of any and all electronic devices, IDs, email addresses, passwords, hints, personal identification numbers (PINs), API keys or any other codes that you use to access the Brokerage Services. You are responsible for keeping your email address and telephone number up to date in order to receive any notices or alerts that we may send you. You should never allow remote access or share your computer and/or computer screen with someone else when you are logged on to your Account. CCM will never under any circumstances ask you or your Trusted Contacts for your passwords, 2-factor authentication codes, or to screen share or otherwise seek to access your computer or account. CCM is not liable for any loss that you may sustain due to the compromise of your account login credentials or resulting from your use of the Trusted Contacts feature. CCM is also not liable for your failure to follow or act on any notices or alerts that we may send to you.

7.3. Trusted Contact. In order to comply with industry regulations (FINRA Rule 4512), CCM asks clients for trusted contact information. A trusted contact is someone who we can get in touch with and disclose information about your account to address possible financial exploitation, confirm specifics of your current contact information, health status, or the identity of any legal guardian, executor, trustee or holder of a power of attorney, or as otherwise permitted. A Trusted Contact is not authorized to enter transactions in your account or withdraw funds. Upon account opening, you will be presented with a few next steps to complete your account set-up. You will be provided the opportunity to add your trusted contact in that final account setup. You are responsible for ensuring that any Trusted Contacts you appoint are individuals that you know personally and trust, that you are able to contact them if and when you need to take certain actions, and that you keep your designated Trusted Contacts up to date. Any loss or compromise of the foregoing information, your personal information, and/or actions taken by your Trusted Contacts may result in unauthorized access to your Account by third-parties and the loss or theft of any funds or securities held in your Account and any associated accounts, including your linked bank account(s) and credit card(s).

7.2. Security Breach. If you suspect that your Account or any of your security details have been compromised or if you become aware of any fraud or attempted fraud or any other security incident (including a cyber-security attack) affecting you and/or CCM (collectively a “Security Breach”), you must notify CCM Support immediately at <https://help.coinbase.com> or (888) 908-7930 and provide accurate and up to date information throughout the duration of the Security Breach. You must take any steps that we reasonably require to reduce or manage any Security Breach. Prompt reporting of a Security Breach does not guarantee that CCM will reimburse you for any losses suffered or be liable to you for any losses suffered as a result of the Security Breach.

7.3. Computer Viruses. We shall not bear any liability, whatsoever, for any damage or interruptions caused by any computer viruses or other malicious code that may affect your computer or other equipment, or any phishing, spoofing or other attack. We advise the regular use of a reputable and readily available virus screening and prevention software. You should also be aware that SMS and email services are vulnerable to spoofing and phishing attacks and should use care in reviewing messages purporting to originate from CCM. Always log into your Account(s) through the Brokerage Site to review any transactions or required actions if you have any uncertainty regarding the authenticity of any communication or notice.

7.4 Prompt Review of Confirmation and Statements. You agree to promptly review all confirmations and statements electronically delivered to you and notify us within ten (10) Business Days in writing if:

- (i) You receive confirmation of an order you did not place;
- (ii) You receive a confirmation with inaccurate information pertaining to an order you placed or execution you received; or
- (iii) You fail to receive confirmation of an order you initiated as having been received or executed. Further, you agree to immediately notify us if you become aware of any loss, theft, or unauthorized use of your password, authentication method(s), account number(s); or any unauthorized use of CCM’s products, services or provided Market Data.

8. Order Handling and Payment For Order Flow

8.1 Order Handling. You will use the Brokerage Site to place orders or provide instructions. All orders you submit are subject to prevailing market conditions, system availability, size and price limitations, exchange rules, and Applicable Law. We route orders for execution to the Carrying Broker which will manage the execution of the orders in other market venues such as a national securities exchange, alternative trading system or executing broker-dealer (collectively “third-party market centers”). The Carrying Broker may have relationships with third-party market centers and may receive compensation, rebates, or other benefits in connection with your transactions, as disclosed.

8.2 Best Execution. CCM routes all of your orders to the Carrying Broker, which will manage the execution of those orders. CCM regularly and rigorously reviews the execution quality provided by the Carrying Broker to evaluate whether executions are consistent with our best-execution obligations.

8.3 Payment for Order Flow. SEC Rule 607 requires registered broker-dealers to disclose their policies regarding the receipt of payment for order flow in connection with the routing of certain customer orders. Payment for order flow is any monetary payment, service, property, or other benefit that results in remuneration, compensation, or consideration to a broker or dealer from any broker or dealer, national securities exchange, registered securities association, or exchange member in return for the routing of customer orders by such broker or dealer to any broker or dealer, national securities exchange, registered securities association, or exchange member for execution. CCM routes customer orders in equity securities to the Carrying Broker for execution. The Carrying Broker will then route customer orders to third-party market centers for execution. The Carrying Broker will receive payment for order flow from the third-party market centers and may share a portion of that remuneration with us. Further details are described in our Rule 606 reports, available at coinbase.com/ccm.

8.4 Clearly Erroneous Policy. A “clearly erroneous” transaction is an execution of an order that was entered in error (e.g., in terms of price, quantity or symbol) and at a price substantially away from, or inconsistent with, the prevailing market for that security at the time of execution. CCM reserves the right, to be exercised at its discretion, to modify the terms of, or to cancel, transactions that it determines to be the result of clearly erroneous orders placed by a client or the result of inaccurate market data. Please refer to the FINRA Rule 11890 Series <https://www.finra.org/rules-guidance/rulebooks/finra-rules/11890> for additional information concerning clearly erroneous transactions and filings. In addition, if the SEC, an SRO, or other applicable regulatory body determines that an executed trade is clearly erroneous or must otherwise be cancelled, CCM, in coordination with the Carrying Broker, will be required to cancel the trade and will not be able to honor the executed price, any price guarantee or other terms associated with such trade.

8.5 Order Routing Disclosure. Rule 606 of Regulation NMS requires broker-dealers to publish quarterly reports on their routing of non-directed orders in listed stocks, NASDAQ stocks and listed options. These reports also include information about CCM’s relationship with certain market centers to which it routes orders. CCM’s Rule 606 reports can be found at coinbase.com/ccm. Detailed information about the routing and execution of customer’s orders, including the market centers to which customer’s orders were routed, whether such orders were directed or nondirected orders, and the time of the transactions, if any, that resulted from such orders, is available upon request.

9. Market Data

9.1 Receipt of Market Data. You understand that CCM obtains Market Data from national securities exchanges, information processors, and other markets and/or market participants (collectively referred to as “Market Data Vendors”) that transmit and make available Market

Data. CCM may charge a fee for providing you access to Market Data. You understand and agree that your receipt of Market Data does not constitute a recommendation or solicitation by CCM for the purchase or sale of any securities. You understand and agree that each Market Data Vendor has and asserts a proprietary interest in all Market Data it supplies. You understand and agree to use Market Data only for your personal, non-business use and you represent that you are a Nonprofessional Subscriber of Market Data. You understand and agree that you will not provide or redistribute Market Data to any third party or entity. You understand and agree that Market Data Providers may enforce the terms of this Agreement directly against you.

9.2 Market Data Vendor Agreements. For certain types of Market Data, our Market Data Vendor(s) require us to include specific terms and conditions in our agreements with you, or cause you to enter into specific agreements, prior to you obtaining or being provided access to their Market Data. Specific terms required of a Market Data Vendor or Market Data Vendor agreement are incorporated in this Agreement as a CCM Market Data Addendum. Receipt and use of Market Data are subject to the terms of this Agreement as well as to CCM Market Data Addendum. By agreeing to this Agreement, opening an Account, or accessing any services from CCM, you agree to the CCM Market Data Addendum.

9.3 No Warranty. We believe the Market Data we receive to be reliable. However, the accuracy, sequencing, completeness, and timely receipt of the Market Data is not guaranteed either by us or by the Market Data Vendor. CCM makes no warranty of any kind, express or implied, regarding Market Data it provides. You understand and agree that neither CCM nor a Market Data Vendor will be liable for any losses arising out of or relating to any inaccuracy, defect, or omission in Market Data or interruptions in the availability of Market Data.

9.4 Termination of Market Data Services. You further understand and agree that CCM may, at any time and for any reason, without notice to you, to the extent permissible under Applicable Law, (i) terminate or otherwise restrict your access to any or all Market Data services provided by the Market Data Vendors for nonpayment of fees or other reasons; and/or (ii) require that you purge any or all Market Data provided by the Market Data Vendors.

10. Cash Account

10.1 Payment and Delivery. You agree to pay for all purchases you make in your Account by settlement day. When you place a buy order, you represent that you do not intend to sell the security you purchase before paying for it and that you will not use the proceeds of the sale of the security to pay for the purchase of the security. We or the Carrying Broker may require an equity deposit or full payment by you before we accept your order. When you sell long securities, you must own the securities when you place the order and you agree to deliver the securities by settlement date.

10.2 Satisfaction of Obligations and Liabilities. In order to satisfy your obligations or liabilities to us or the Carrying Broker, you authorize the Carrying Broker or CCM, in our complete discretion and without prior demand or notice to you, to instruct the Carrying Broker, or for the Carrying Broker, to sell or otherwise liquidate all or any part of the securities or other property held in your Account(s) if funds or securities are not timely provided. We may instruct the Carrying Broker to set off, liquidate, or transfer assets among your Accounts to satisfy obligations or liabilities. You acknowledge that we and the Carrying Broker have the right to demand payment on any debit balance and the Carrying Broker reserves the right to collect the amount directly from you. You are responsible for any losses, costs, or fees arising from late payment, returned transfers, or failures to deliver. The Carrying Broker shall look solely to CCM unless otherwise directed by CCM, and not to you, with respect to any such liquidation orders or instructions; except that you understand that the Carrying Broker will prepare and electronically deliver confirmations, statements, and other notices with respect to an Account directly to you with copies to CCM, and that the Carrying Broker may look directly to you or CCM for delivery of payment, or securities, as applicable.

12. Fractional Shares

12.1 Fractional Shares. CCM via our Carrying Broker may facilitate trading in fractions of a share (“Fractional Shares”) of a security. The Carrying Broker may then subsequently custody your Fractional Shares in your Account. You acknowledge and understand that the Carrying Broker will hold quantities of Fractional Shares up to five (5) decimal places. You further

For voluntary corporate actions, we will, where practicable, provide you with the subject materials and set reasonable response deadlines. We may, but are not obligated to, notify you of any upcoming expiration or redemption date. CCM will not act on your behalf without instruction from you. CCM may take an action on your behalf without your specific instructions except as required by regulatory authorities and Applicable Law. You understand and acknowledge that failure to provide us with an instruction prior to the cut off date will result in no action being taken as part of the voluntary corporate action or may result in default treatment per the issuer's terms. You understand that you are solely responsible for knowing the rights, terms, and obligations of all securities purchased, sold and maintained in your Account including, but not limited to, mandatory and voluntary corporate actions. You further understand that by owning certain securities you may be granted valuable rights which may expire unless you take specific action. We may throttle, restrict, or terminate any access that threatens our Brokerage Site or market stability. We may review your Account activity for fraud, market abuse, or for compliance purposes and may file required reports in accordance with Applicable Law without notice to you. You understand that we may at any time, in our sole discretion and without prior notice to you: (i) prohibit or restrict your access to the use of our Brokerage Services or Market Data and your ability to trade through our Brokerage Site; (ii) refuse to accept or execute any of your transactions; (iii) cancel any of your transactions; (iv) prohibit or restrict the trading of securities held in your Account; (v) restrict your Account to liquidation-only; (vi) restrict your ability to deposit or withdraw funds; and (vi) terminate your Account.

15.4 Suspension and Termination. CCM may suspend, restrict, or terminate your access to any or all of the Brokerage Services, and CCM and/or the Carrying Broker may deactivate or cancel your Account(s), with immediate effect for any reason at its sole discretion and is under no obligation to disclose the details of its decision to take such action with you. You acknowledge that CCM's decision to take certain actions, including limiting access to, suspending, or closing your Account for any reason in our sole discretion, may be based on confidential criteria that are essential to CCM's risk management and security protocols. You will remain liable for all obligations incurred in your Account, pursuant to this Agreement, or otherwise, whether arising before or after termination. You may terminate this Agreement after paying any obligations owed upon written notice. This Agreement survives termination of your Account. If we terminate this Agreement or we or the Carrying Broker close or deactivate your Account, you agree that we are authorized to instruct the Carrying Broker to liquidate, or the Carrying Broker is authorized to liquidate, any property, send you any net proceeds, and close your Account. This is without limitation to our other rights under this Agreement or otherwise. We nor the Carrying Broker will not be responsible for any losses caused by the discontinuation or closing your Account or any services, or any liquidation of your property or closure of your Account, including any tax liabilities.

15.5 Closure. You may close your Account(s) at any time by visiting <https://help.coinbase.com>. You will not be charged for closing your Account(s), although you will be required to pay any outstanding amounts owed to CCM. You authorize us to cancel or suspend any pending transactions at the time of account closure. CCM may discontinue or change any product, service, or feature, in its sole discretion, at any time. You agree that we may transfer you to a product or service that is reasonably similar to the discontinued or changed product or service, to the extent such product or service exists. We will provide you with prior notice of material changes, discontinuation, or the transfer related to a product, service, or feature, to the extent required or applicable.

16. Order Cancellations and Corrections

16.1 Order Cancellations. You acknowledge that it may not be possible to cancel a market or limit order once you have placed it, and you agree to exercise caution before placing all orders. Any attempt you make to cancel an order is deemed a request to cancel such order. While we may instruct the Carrying Broker to cancel the order, neither we nor the Carrying Broker will be held liable if we are unable to cancel the order before it is executed.

16.2 Corrections. We may instruct the Carrying Broker or the Carrying Broker may correct transactions and entries to address errors, breaks, or systems issues, including exchange and clearing breaks. If you receive funds or securities due to an error, you agree to return them on demand. We may take any lawful action to reverse erroneous credits to your Account.

17. Indemnification; Limitation of Liability

17.1 Release of Coinbase; Indemnification. If you have a dispute with one or more users of the Brokerage Services, you release CCM, its affiliates, the Carrying Broker and service providers, and each of their respective officers, directors, agents, joint venturers, employees and representatives from any and all claims, demands and damages (actual and consequential) of every kind and nature arising out of or in any way connected with such disputes. You agree to indemnify and hold CCM, its affiliates, the Carrying Broker and service providers, and each of its or their respective officers, directors, agents, joint venturers, employees and representatives, harmless from any claim or demand (including attorneys' fees and any fines, fees or penalties imposed by any regulatory authority) arising out of or related to your breach of this Agreement or your violation of any law, rule or regulation, or the rights of any third party.

17.2 Limitation of Liability; No Warranty. IN NO EVENT SHALL CCM, ITS AFFILIATES, AND SERVICE PROVIDERS, OR ANY OF THEIR RESPECTIVE OFFICERS, DIRECTORS,

AGENTS, JOINT VENTURERS, EMPLOYEES OR REPRESENTATIVES, BE LIABLE (I) FOR ANY AMOUNT GREATER THAN THE VALUE OF THE EQUITY SECURITIES ASSOCIATED WITH YOUR ACCOUNT AT THE TIME OF THE EVENT OR CIRCUMSTANCE GIVING RISE TO YOUR CLAIM OR (II) FOR ANY LOST PROFITS, LOSS OF GOODWILL OR REPUTATION, LOSS OF DATA, DIMINUTION IN VALUE OR BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY, ANY LOSS, DAMAGE, CORRUPTION OR BREACH OF DATA OR ANY OTHER INTANGIBLE PROPERTY OR ANY SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, INDIRECT, INTANGIBLE, OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, WHETHER BASED IN CONTRACT, TORT, NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY, OR OTHERWISE, ARISING OUT OF OR IN CONNECTION WITH ANY USE OF THE BROKERAGE SITE OR THE CCM SERVICES, OR THIS AGREEMENT, EVEN IF CCM HAS BEEN ADVISED OF OR KNEW OR SHOULD HAVE KNOWN OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES, AND NOTWITHSTANDING THE FAILURE OF ANY AGREED OR OTHER REMEDY OF ITS ESSENTIAL PURPOSE, EXCEPT TO THE EXTENT OF A FINAL JUDICIAL DETERMINATION THAT SUCH DAMAGES WERE A RESULT OF CCM'S GROSS NEGLIGENCE, FRAUD, WILLFUL MISCONDUCT OR INTENTIONAL VIOLATION OF LAW. THIS MEANS, BY WAY OF EXAMPLE ONLY (AND WITHOUT LIMITING THE SCOPE OF THE PRECEDING SENTENCE), THAT IF YOU CLAIM THAT CCM FAILED TO PROCESS A BUY OR SELL TRANSACTION PROPERLY, YOUR DAMAGES ARE LIMITED TO NO MORE THAN THE LESSER OF THE VALUE OF THE EQUITY SECURITY AT ISSUE IN THE TRANSACTION OR THE TOTAL VALUE OF THE EQUITY SECURITY ASSOCIATED WITH YOUR ACCOUNT, AND THAT YOU MAY NOT RECOVER FOR LOST PROFITS, LOST BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES, DIMINUTION IN VALUE OR OTHER TYPES OF SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, INDIRECT, INTANGIBLE, EXEMPLARY, PUNITIVE OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES OR ANY DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO EQUITY SECURITIES THAT ARE NOT SUPPORTED. SOME JURISDICTIONS DO NOT ALLOW THE EXCLUSION OR LIMITATION OF INCIDENTAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES, SO THE ABOVE LIMITATION MAY NOT APPLY TO YOU.

THE CCM SERVICES ARE PROVIDED ON AN "AS IS" AND "AS AVAILABLE" BASIS WITHOUT ANY REPRESENTATION OR WARRANTY, WHETHER EXPRESS, IMPLIED OR STATUTORY. TO THE MAXIMUM EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, CCM SPECIFICALLY DISCLAIMS ANY IMPLIED WARRANTIES OF TITLE, MERCHANTABILITY, FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE AND/OR NON-INFRINGEMENT. CCM DOES NOT MAKE ANY REPRESENTATIONS OR WARRANTIES THAT ACCESS TO THE BROKERAGE SITE, ANY PART OF THE BROKERAGE SERVICES, OR ANY OF THE MATERIALS CONTAINED THEREIN, WILL BE CONTINUOUS, UNINTERRUPTED, TIMELY, OR ERROR-FREE. CCM DOES NOT GUARANTEE THAT ANY ORDER WILL BE EXECUTED, ACCEPTED, OR REMAIN OPEN. EXCEPT FOR THE EXPRESS STATEMENTS SET FORTH IN THIS AGREEMENT, YOU HEREBY ACKNOWLEDGE AND AGREE THAT YOU HAVE NOT RELIED UPON ANY OTHER STATEMENT OR UNDERSTANDING, WHETHER WRITTEN OR ORAL, WITH RESPECT TO YOUR USE AND ACCESS OF THE BROKERAGE SERVICES AND BROKERAGE SITE. WITHOUT LIMITING THE FOREGOING, YOU HEREBY UNDERSTAND AND AGREE THAT CCM WILL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ANY LOSSES OR DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO: (I) ANY INACCURACY, DEFECT OR OMISSION OF EQUITY SECURITY PRICE DATA, OR ANY ERROR, DELAY OR INTERRUPTION IN THE TRANSMISSION OF SUCH DATA; (II) VIRUSES OR OTHER MALICIOUS SOFTWARE OBTAINED BY ACCESSING OUR WEBSITES, SOFTWARE, SYSTEMS OPERATED BY US OR ON OUR BEHALF OR ANY OF THE BROKERAGE SERVICES OR ANY WEBSITE OR SERVICE LINKED TO OUR WEBSITE; (III) GLITCHES, BUGS, ERRORS, OR INACCURACIES OF ANY KIND IN OUR WEBSITES, SOFTWARE, SYSTEMS OPERATED BY US OR ON OUR BEHALF OR ANY OF THE CCM SERVICES; OR (IV) A SUSPENSION OR OTHER ACTION TAKEN WITH RESPECT TO YOUR CCM ACCOUNT.

18. Common Risks

Risks. Trading and investing in securities involves risk, including the possible complete loss of all funds invested, including losses exceeding your principal investment. Past performance of a security or financial product does not guarantee future results or returns on investment. All investment decisions are your own and you shall not rely on any information provided by us or any information provided by our officers, directors or employees when making an investment decision. Before placing any order, it is your responsibility to evaluate whether the investment, strategy, and risks are suitable for your circumstances and risk tolerance. You acknowledge receipt and have read the CCM Use and Risk Disclosures (APPENDIX A).

19. Extended Hours Trading

Extended Hours Trading. Trading outside of regular market hours (i.e. between 9:30 a.m. and 4:00 p.m.) involves additional risks, including lower liquidity, wider spreads, increased volatility, unlinked markets, news announcements, and differing halt rules. Orders may be limited to certain types and venues. You acknowledge receipt of our Extended Hours Trading Disclosure (APPENDIX B), and agree to the terms governing such trading.

20. Privacy and Information Sharing

20.1 Personal Data. You acknowledge that you have received the CCM Privacy Policy and understand that we may process personal data in relation to you (if you are an individual), and personal data that you have provided or in the future provide to us in relation to your employees and other associated individuals, in connection with this Agreement, or the Brokerage Services. Accordingly, you represent and warrant that: (i) your disclosure to us of any personal data relating to individuals other than yourself was or will be made in accordance with all applicable data protection and data privacy laws, and such data are accurate, up to date and relevant when disclosed; (ii) before providing any such personal data to us, you have read and understood our Privacy Policy, and, in the case of personal data relating to an individual other than yourself, have (or will at the time of disclosure have) provided a copy of that Privacy Policy (as amended from time to time), to that individual; and (iii) if from time to time we provide you with a replacement version of the Privacy Policy, you will promptly read that notice and provide a copy to any individual whose personal data you have provided to us.

20.2 Information Sharing. You agree and understand that where we disclose your personal data, it will be made in accordance with the terms of this Agreement or our Privacy Policy, as applicable. Consistent with our Privacy Policy, you understand and agree that CCM and its agents are authorized and may disclose information about your Account and your related activities to third parties.

21. Dormant or Abandoned Property

Unclaimed Property. If you hold funds or securities in your Account and CCM or the Carrying Broker have no record of you accessing the Brokerage Services for several years and we are unable to contact you, applicable law may require us to instruct the Carrying Broker to deliver any such funds and/or securities to the applicable state or jurisdiction as unclaimed property.

22. Amendments

Amendments. We may amend or modify this Agreement at any time by posting the revised agreement on the Brokerage Site and/or providing a copy to you (a “Revised Agreement”). The Revised Agreement shall be effective as of the time it is posted but will not apply retroactively. Your continued use of our Brokerage Services after the posting of a Revised Agreement constitutes your acceptance of such Revised Agreement. If you do not agree with any such modification, your sole and exclusive remedy is to terminate your use of the Brokerage Services and close your Account.

23. Force Majeure

Force Majeure. In addition to any excuse provided by Applicable Law, CCM shall be excused from any delays, failures, interruptions, loss and/or liability for non-performance of this Agreement, arising, directly or indirectly, from any event beyond our control, whether or not foreseeable, including but not limited to, market disruptions, significant market volatility, systems failures, cyber incidents, communications outages, strike or other labor dispute, act of civil or military authorities, act of terrorists, civil disturbance, war, fire, accident, adverse weather, acts of God, pandemic, inability to secure transportation, governmental act or regulation, failure of any electronic communication system for the transmission of orders, interruption in telecommunications or Internet services or network provider services, failure of electrical power, failure of equipment and/or software, inability to obtain raw materials or other causes or events beyond our control, whether or not similar to those enumerated above.

24. Governing Law & Forum Selection

24.1 Governing Law. Except as otherwise provided in the Arbitration Agreement (Paragraph 29 herein), you and we agree that the laws of the State of New York, without regard to principles of conflict of laws, will govern the Agreement and any dispute, except to the extent governed by the Federal Arbitration Act or other Applicable Law.

24.2 Forum Selection. Unless you and CCM agree otherwise, to the maximum extent permitted by Applicable Law, the state and federal courts in New York, New York will have exclusive jurisdiction over any dispute that is not subject to the Arbitration Agreement. Except as otherwise provided in the Arbitration Agreement, you and CCM consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of these courts and waive any objections as to: (1) personal jurisdiction or (2) the laying of venue in such courts because of inconvenient forum or any other basis or right to seek to transfer or change venue of any such action to another court.

25. Miscellaneous

25.1 Headings. The heading of each provision of this Agreement is for descriptive purposes only and shall not be deemed to modify or qualify any of the rights or obligations set forth in each such provision.

25.2 Non-Waiver of Rights. This Agreement shall not be construed to waive rights that cannot be waived under Applicable Laws. Our failure to insist upon or enforce strict performance by you of any provision of this Agreement or to exercise any right under this Agreement will not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment to any extent of our right to assert or rely upon any such provision or right in that or any other instance.

25.3 Instruction Authorization. You authorize us to instruct and for the Carrying Broker to receive and deliver securities and cash for your Account, including through the Automated Customer Account Transfer Service (“ACATS”) or other transfer mechanisms. We may reject or delay a transfer if information is incomplete, if positions are subject to restrictions, or if amounts are owed. Further, we may decline to accept transfer instructions that would result in the Carrying Broker custodialing unsupported securities. Should you transfer an unsupported security to your Account, we may restrict your Account or return the unsupported securities. Certain assets (including fractional shares or proprietary products) may be ineligible for transfer and may be liquidated. Transfer-out and rejection fees may apply as disclosed.

25.4 Restricted Stock. You understand that as part of our Brokerage Services, we do not support the sale of Rule 144 restricted stock. You understand and agree that you may not transfer restricted stock to your Account if you are an affiliate of CCM.

26. SIPC and Insurance

26.1 SIPC Membership. We and the Carrying Broker are each a member of SIPC, which protects customers of SIPC members up to applicable limits for cash and securities held in a brokerage account in the event the SIPC member fails financially. SIPC protection does not cover losses with respect to the market value of your investments. The Carrying Broker may maintain additional excess-SIPC insurance; coverage details are available upon request. Bank deposit sweep accounts, if any, are FDIC-insured only to applicable limits at participating banks and are not covered by SIPC. Similarly, pursuant to our cash management program (Paragraph 11 herein), once free credit balances are transferred from the Carrying Broker to Coinbase Inc., your free credit balances are no longer covered by SIPC. Additionally, SIPC does not apply to your digital asset holdings with Coinbase Inc..

26.2 SIPC Protection. Coinbase Capital Markets Corporation and the Carrying Broker are members of the SIPC which protects the securities customers of its members up to $500,000, including a maximum of $250,000 for claims of cash. Customers may obtain information about SIPC, including the SIPC brochure, at sipc.org or by calling 1-202-371-8300.

27. Authorized Representatives

27.1 Authorized Representative. CCM may, in its sole discretion and otherwise in compliance with Applicable Laws and subject to any conditions that we may require, permit you to appoint a duly authorized representative or agent to act on your behalf with respect to your Account. You are solely responsible for any risks associated with your authorized representative, including any actions, decisions, or conduct of your authorized representative. You instruct CCM to treat any order or instruction from your authorized representative as if that order or instruction was directly from you for the purposes of this Agreement, and to assume that such order and instruction is valid and authorized without further inquiry.

27.2 Binding Instruction. CCM is not responsible for determining and will not determine whether any authorized representative has authority to perform any actions generally or specifically with respect to your Account or your property and we will not determine the validity of your authorized representative's status or capacity. You will be bound by any order or instruction given by your authorized representative, and irrevocably ratify any action taken by your authorized representative connected with your Account. Should you wish to remove an authorized person from your Account, we may require additional documentation prior to removing such authorized representative. You remain responsible for all actions of your authorized representative until we have had a reasonable time to act on revocations.

29. Arbitration Agreement

This Agreement contains a predispute arbitration clause. By signing an arbitration agreement the parties agree as follows:

- 1) All parties to this Agreement are giving up the right to sue each other in court, including the right to a jury trial, except as provided by the rules of the arbitration forum in which a claim is filed.
- 2) Arbitration awards are generally final and binding; a party's ability to have a court reverse or modify an arbitration award is very limited.
- 3) The ability of the parties to obtain documents, witness statements, and other discovery is generally more limited in arbitration than in court proceedings.

4) The arbitrators do not have to explain the reason(s) for their award unless, in an eligible case, a joint request for an explained decision has been submitted by all parties to the panel at least 20 days prior to the first scheduled hearing date.

5) The panel of arbitrators will typically include a minority of arbitrators who were or are affiliated with the securities industry.

6) The rules of some arbitration forums may impose time limits for bringing a claim in arbitration. In some cases, a claim that is ineligible for arbitration may be brought in court.

7) The rules of the arbitration forum in which the claim is filed, and any amendments thereto, shall be incorporated into this Agreement.

You agree that any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Agreement, your Account, or any transactions with us and/or any of our present or former officers, directors, or employees or the Carrying Broker shall be resolved by binding arbitration and conducted by, and according to the securities arbitration rules and regulations then in effect of FINRA or another self-regulatory organization arbitration forum of which CCM is a member, as mutually agreed. This arbitration agreement is made pursuant to a transaction involving interstate commerce and shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act.

If you are a foreign national, non-resident alien, or if you do not reside in the United States, you agree to waive your right to file an action against CCM in any foreign venue.

No person shall bring a putative or certified class action to arbitration, nor seek to enforce any predispute arbitration agreement against any person who has initiated in court a putative class action; or who is a member of a putative class who has not opted out of the class with respect to any claims encompassed by the putative class action until: (i) the class certification is denied; or (ii) the class is decertified; or (iii) the customer is excluded from the class by the court. Such forbearance to enforce an agreement to arbitrate shall not constitute a waiver of any rights under this agreement except to the extent stated herein.

30. Binding Effect; Assignment & Severability

30.1 Binding Effect. This Agreement shall bind your heirs, assigns, executors, successors, conservators and administrators.

30.2 Assignment. We reserve the right to assign our rights without restriction, including without limitation to any CCM affiliates or subsidiaries, or to any successor in interest of any business associated with the Brokerage Services. In the event that CCM is acquired by or merged with a third party entity, we reserve the right, in any of these circumstances, to transfer or assign the information we have collected from you as part of such merger, acquisition, sale, or other change of control. You may not assign any rights granted under this Agreement. Any attempted transfer or assignment by you in violation hereof shall be null and void. Subject to the foregoing, this Agreement will bind and inure to the benefit of the parties, their successors and permitted assigns.

30.3 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement shall be determined to be invalid or unenforceable under any rule, law, or regulation of any local, state, or federal government agency, such provision will be changed and interpreted to accomplish the objectives of the provision to the greatest extent possible under any applicable law and the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement shall not be affected.

30.4 Modification or Recission. If any terms, provisions or conditions of this Agreement are or become inconsistent with any present or future law, rule, or regulation of any applicable government, regulatory or self-regulatory agency or body, or are deemed invalid or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, such provisions shall be deemed rescinded or modified, to the extent permitted by Applicable Law, to make this Agreement in compliance with such law, rule or regulation, or to be valid and enforceable, but in all other respects, this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect.

31. Acknowledgments

Acknowledgement. You acknowledge that you have read the preceding terms and conditions of this Agreement, that you understand them and that you hereby manifest your assent to, and your agreement to comply with, those terms and conditions by accepting this Agreement.

32. Entire Agreement

This Agreement, together with all incorporated disclosures, the Carrying Broker's customer agreement, and your account opening documents, constitutes the entire agreement between you and us with respect to your Account and supersedes prior understandings on the same subject. In the event of a conflict, specific product agreements will control as to their subject matter, and the Carrying Broker's agreement will control as to clearing and custody matters.

You understand that by accepting this Agreement you have acknowledged that this Agreement contains a predispute arbitration agreement in Paragraph 29 herein.

By clicking to accept, opening, funding, or using the Account, you acknowledge that you have read, understand, and agree to this Agreement, including the Electronic Delivery Consent Agreement cross-referenced in Paragraph 5 herein.

Appendix A

CCM Use and Risk Disclosure

IT IS IMPORTANT THAT YOU READ AND FULLY UNDERSTAND THE FOLLOWING RISKS OF TRADING AND INVESTING IN YOUR SELF-DIRECTED CCM ACCOUNT.

USE OF SELF-DIRECTED TRADING ACCOUNTS

All Customer Accounts are self-directed. Accordingly, Customers are solely responsible for any and all orders placed in their Accounts and understand that all orders entered by them are based on their own investment decisions or the investment decisions of their duly authorized representative or agent. Consequently, any Customer of CCM agrees that neither CCM, nor any of its affiliates, officers, directors, employees, agents, principals or representatives:

- i. Provide investment advice in connection with an Account;
- ii. Recommend any security, transaction, order or investment strategy;
- iii. Solicit orders;
- iv. Act as a market maker in any security;
- v. Make discretionary trades; and
- vi. Produce or provide research. To the extent third-party research materials or similar information is made available through CCM's application, website, or websites of any of its affiliates, the information is intended for informational and educational purposes only and it does not constitute a recommendation to enter into any securities transactions or to engage in any investment strategies.

GENERAL RISKS OF TRADING AND INVESTING

All securities trading, whether in stocks, exchange-traded funds ("ETFs"), options, or other investment vehicles, is speculative in nature and involves substantial risk of loss. CCM encourages its Customers to invest carefully and to use the information available at the websites of the SEC at <http://www.sec.gov> and FINRA at <http://FINRA.org>. Customers can review public companies' filings at the SEC's EDGAR page at <https://www.sec.gov/edgar/search/>. FINRA has published information on how to invest carefully at its website. CCM may also make some of this information available on its website. CCM believes it is very important that every Customer understands all of the risks of any form of trading or investing prior to trading or investing real dollars. Past performance is not necessarily indicative of future results. By investing their money in securities through CCM, Customers are taking full responsibility for all trading actions, and should make every effort to understand the risks involved.

CCM USE AND RISK DISCLOSURES

1. You may lose money trading and investing.

Trading and investing in securities is always risky. For that reason, Customers should trade or invest only with money they can afford to lose. Trading stocks, ETFs and equity options involves significant risk, and you could lose all of your investments.

2. Past performance is not necessarily indicative of future results.

All investments carry risk, and all trading decisions of an individual remain the responsibility of that individual. There is no guarantee that systems, indicators, or trading signals will result in profits or that they will not result in losses. All Customers are advised to fully understand all risks associated with any kind of trading or investing they choose to do.

3. Investment Advice

All CCM brokerage accounts are self-directed, all investment decisions are self-directed, and the sole responsibility of the Customer, and made at the Customer's own risk. As such, Customers need to depend on their own understanding and knowledge of investing and the details of trading in order to handle situations as they arise, including the consultation of their own investment advisors as they deem appropriate.

4. Stop orders may reduce, but not eliminate, your trading risk.

A stop order, if offered, is an order to buy or sell a security at the market price once the stock has traded at or through a specified price. If the security reaches the stop price, the order becomes a market order and is typically filled at the next available market price. If the security does not reach the stop price, the order is not executed. Stop orders are generally used by investors to limit the amount they might lose or to ensure a trade was profitable. There can be no guarantee, however, that it will be possible under all market conditions to execute the stop order at the price specified. In an active, volatile market, the market price may be declining (or rising) so rapidly that there is no opportunity to liquidate the Customer's position at the stop price they designated. Under these circumstances, the broker's only obligation is to execute your order at the prevailing market price. Therefore, stop orders may reduce, but not eliminate, your trading risk.

5. Common Risks to Trading and Investing

- Market and volatility risk: Prices of securities can fluctuate rapidly due to events, including but not limited to, issuer-specific news, macroeconomic events, interest-rate changes, geopolitical developments, and market sentiment. Rapid price movements may result in executions at prices materially different from the last trade price or the displayed quote. You understand that CCM is not liable for any price fluctuations.
- Liquidity and execution risk: Not all securities have deep or continuous markets. Low-liquidity securities may experience wide spreads, partial fills, or no execution. Order protections and auction processes vary by venue and product.
- Order type risk:
One Time Orders:

- One Time orders to buy a specific quantity of an asset will be submitted as limit orders with an additional 2% price collar to prevent execution outside of such percentage and based on the National Best Bid and Offer (NBBO) at the time. Such orders attempt to execute upon submission, but may be partially filled, with any unfilled amount being canceled after 5 seconds.

All other One Time orders will be submitted as immediate-or-cancel orders:

- One Time orders to sell a specific quantity of an asset will be submitted as immediate-or-cancel orders. The order will attempt to execute immediately at the best available price. There is no separate price collar and any portion of the order that cannot be executed will be cancelled.
- One Time orders to buy a specific dollar amount of an asset will be submitted as immediate-or-cancel orders. The order will attempt to execute immediately at the best available price. There is no separate price collar and any portion of the order that cannot be executed will be cancelled.
- One Time orders to sell a specific dollar amount of an asset will be submitted as immediate-or-cancel orders. The order will attempt to execute immediately at the best available price. There is no separate price collar and any portion of the order that cannot be executed will be cancelled.

Limit Orders:

- Limit orders are orders to buy or sell at a specified price. Limit orders may not execute, or may execute partially.
- Technology, cybersecurity, and systems risk: Outages, latency, cyber incidents, and vendor failures may delay or prevent order entry, cancellation, or execution, or display inaccurate balances.
- Regulatory and trading halts: Exchanges or regulators may halt or restrict trading (including Limit Up/Limit Down). New orders may be rejected and existing orders may be cancelled or remain unexecuted during halts.
- Tax risk: We do not provide tax advice. Tax outcomes depend on your individual situation and may change with law or guidance. You are responsible for maintaining adequate records and consulting your tax adviser.
- Third-party content and tools: Third-party research, ratings, or tools are not endorsements of a particular security, sector or industry and the provided information may be incomplete or inaccurate. We do not guarantee their accuracy.

- Day trading and concentrated position risk: Frequent trading and concentrated holdings can increase costs and risk of loss. Pattern day trading in margin Accounts, if offered, may trigger special requirements and restrictions.
- Use of stablecoins and pegged token services: Use of stablecoins or other pegged token services and related service offerings, should be evaluated for a variety of risk factors, including storage and management of reserves, market, credit, liquidity, settlement risk, in addition to legal risks related to adoption of new asset services.

RISKS OF INVESTING IN STOCKS AND ETFs

Investments always entail some degree of risk. Be aware that:

- i. All CCM brokerage accounts are self-directed and all investment decisions are self-directed, CCM is not making any determination that an investment is suitable for you.
- ii. Some investments in stock cannot easily be sold or converted to cash. Check to see if there is any penalty or charge if you must sell an investment quickly.
- iii. Investments in stock issued by a company with little or no operating history or published information involves greater risk than investing in a public company with an operating history and extensive public information.
- iv. Stock investments are not federally insured against a loss in market value.
- v. Stock you own may be subject to tender offers, mergers, reorganizations, or third-party actions that can affect the value of your ownership interest. Pay careful attention to public announcements and information sent to you about such transactions. They involve complex investment decisions. Be sure you fully understand the terms of any offer to exchange or sell your shares before you act. In some cases, such as partial or two-tier tender offers, failure to act can have detrimental effects on your investment.
- vi. Investors should consider the investment objectives and unique risk profile of an ETF carefully before investing. ETFs are subject to risks similar to those of other diversified portfolios. Leveraged and Inverse ETFs may not be suitable for all investors and may increase exposure to volatility through the use of leverage, short sales of securities, derivatives and other complex investment strategies. Although ETFs are designed to provide investment results that generally correspond to the performance of their respective underlying indices, they may not be able to exactly replicate the performance of the indices because of expenses and other factors. A prospectus contains this and other information about the ETF and should be read carefully before investing. Customers should obtain prospectuses from issuers and/or their third party agents who distribute and make prospectuses available for review. ETFs are required to distribute portfolio gains to shareholders at year end. These gains may be generated by portfolio rebalancing or the need to meet diversification requirements. ETF trading will also generate tax consequences.

Appendix B

Extended Hours Trading Disclosure

You should consider the following information and risks before engaging in Extended Hours Trading. “Extended Hours Trading” for purposes of this disclosure means trading that is not Regular Hours Trading.

“Regular Hours Trading” means trading from 9:30a.m. to 4:00p.m. Eastern Standard Time (“EST”), Monday through Friday.

Risk of Lower Liquidity

Liquidity refers to the relative ability of market participants to efficiently buy and sell a security at a price that reflects its intrinsic value. Generally, the more orders that are available in a market, the greater the liquidity. Liquidity is important because with greater liquidity it is easier for investors to buy or sell securities, and as a result, investors are more likely to pay or receive a competitive price for securities purchased or sold. There may be lower liquidity in Extended Hours Trading as compared to Regular Hours Trading. As a result, your order in Extended Hours Trading may only be partially executed, not executed at all, or may receive inferior pricing.

Risk of Higher Volatility

Volatility refers to the changes in price that securities undergo when trading. Generally, the higher the volatility of a security, the greater its price swings. There may be greater volatility in Extended Hours Trading than in Regular Hours Trading. As a result, your order may only be partially executed, not executed at all, or you may receive an inferior price when engaging in Extended Hours Trading than you would during Regular Hours Trading.

Risk of Changing Prices

The prices of securities traded in Extended Hours Trading may not reflect the prices in Regular Hours Trading. As a result, you may receive an inferior price in Extended Hours Trading.

Risk of Unlinked Markets

Depending on the Extended Hours Trading system or the time of day, the prices displayed on a particular Extended Hours Trading system may not reflect the prices in other concurrently operating Extended Hours Trading systems dealing in the same securities. Accordingly, you may receive a price in one Extended Hours Trading system that is inferior to the price you would receive in another Extended Hours Trading system.

Risk of News Announcements

Normally, issuers make news announcements that may affect the price of their securities after Regular Hours Trading. Similarly, important financial information is frequently announced outside of Regular Hours Trading. In Extended Hours Trading, these announcements may occur during trading, and if combined with lower liquidity and higher volatility, may cause an exaggerated and unsustainable effect on the price of a security.

Risk of Wider Spreads

The spread refers to the difference between the price at which a security can be purchased and the price at which it can be sold. Lower liquidity and higher volatility in Extended Hours Trading may result in wider than normal spreads for a particular security.

Fractional Orders

Securities may not be eligible for fractional trading during the pre-market or after-hours sessions; during these sessions, orders in such securities may be placed for whole shares or queued for the opening of the next Regular Hours Trading session.

Appendix C

Fractional Shares Trading Disclosure

CCM, via its Carrying Broker, allows its Customers to purchase certain stocks and ETFs in fractional shares rather than whole share quantities. This disclosure outlines the unique features, limitations, and risks associated with trading in and holding fractional shares.

Risks

Engaging in fractional share trading poses unique risks and limitations, including those set forth in this Fractional Shares Trading Disclosure. CCM Customers agree that CCM shall not be held liable for risks such as those disclosed herein, including risks in connection with the execution, handling, purchasing, and selling of fractional shares for the Customer's CCM Account.

Fractional Share orders for certain securities may not be available during Extended Hours Trading.

Not all securities are eligible for fractional share trading and CCM or the Carrying Broker reserve the right to limit the securities available for fractional share trading at any time without notice to CCM Customers.

Capacity

In connection with any fractional share component of any purchase or sale transaction, the Carrying Broker (or its affiliate) will generally act as a counterparty and will execute that portion of the trade as principal or riskless principal. The CCM Customer will always be the beneficial owner of any fractional shares in their account and all fractional shares owned by a Customer are segregated in the Carrying Broker's books and records in the same manner and to the same extent as whole shares owned by such Customer.

The Carrying Broker will not accept purchases of less than $5.00. You will receive proceeds from the sale of any whole or fractional shares, less any regulatory trading fees, rounded to the nearest $0.01.

Fractional Orders may only be placed during market hours (9:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. Eastern) and are subject to all applicable market rules and conditions, including but not limited to restrictions, suspensions of trading, and delays.

For a variety of reasons, including those set forth herein, the actual amount of an order executed by the Carrying Broker to buy or sell a dollar value of a security may be higher or lower than the amount requested.

Orders containing fractional shares ("Fractional Orders") will be executed by the Carrying Broker at the price it receives in the market.

Buy Orders: When the Carrying Broker executes buy orders for fractional shares it rounds up the order to the next higher round number of shares then marks order as a principal trade and executes the order for its own account. The Carrying Broker then divides the shares into the fractional amount associated with the Customer's order and puts the remaining fraction into its own account.

Sell Orders: The Carrying Broker executes a sell order for fractional shares, it rounds up the order to the next higher round number of shares then marks the order as a short sale. The Carrying Broker then divides the proceeds of that order into the requisite amount for the Customer's order and puts the remaining amount into its-own account.

Accordingly, when the Carrying Broker executes fractional share orders, the Customer may see its buy orders marked as principal trades and its sell orders marked as short sales.

Order Types

The Carrying Broker will only accept one time and limit orders in dollar values for fractional share trades.

Transferability

While CCM Customers maintain complete day-to-day control of any fractional shares in their account, fractional shares are not transferable to another brokerage firm. If a Customer wants to transfer their holdings in an account to another brokerage firm, the fractional share holdings cannot be transferred and will need to be liquidated before transfer, which may have tax consequences.

Voting Rights

CCM Customers will not have voting rights for any of the fractional shares held in their Account, will not be able to make voluntary elections on any corporate action including, without limitation, any tender offers or rights offerings with respect to such fractional Shares, and the Carrying Broker, via CCM cannot provide CCM Customers any other shareholder documentation for any holdings of less than one share.

Dividend Rights

Clients will receive payments of dividends, or in some cases in connection with stock dividends, either dividend shares or value commensurate to the dividend shares, and will otherwise participate normally in any stock splits, mergers or other mandatory corporate actions.

Five-Decimal Place Recording

The Carrying Broker records the quantity of fractional shares traded or otherwise held in a brokerage account down to five decimal places.

For Subscriber or any other person that continues to receive the Information or any other data and/or Information offered by Nasdaq, a prorated month's credit of any monies due directly to Nasdaq from Subscriber or, if applicable, from any other Person, for the Information at issue during the period at issue, or if Subscriber or any other Person no longer receives either the Information or any other data and/or information offered by Nasdaq, a refund of any monies due directly to Nasdaq from Subscriber or, if applicable, from any other Person, for the Information at issue during the period at issue; or ii. $500. d. 7. DISCLAIMERS OF WARRANTIES. Nasdaq and its third-party information providers make no warranties of any kind — express, implied or statutory (including without limitation, timeliness, truthfulness, sequence, completeness, accuracy, freedom from interruption), any implied warranties arising from trade usage, course of dealing, course of performance or the implied warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular use or purpose or noninfringement.

In no event will the liability of the third-party information providers or their affiliates to Subscriber or any other Person seeking relief through Subscriber pursuant to any cause of action, whether in contract, tort or otherwise, exceed the fee paid by Subscriber or any other Person seeking relief through Subscriber, as applicable.

9. CLAIMS AND LOSSES. Subscriber will indemnify Nasdaq and hold Nasdaq and its employees, officers, directors and other agents harmless from any and all Claims or Losses imposed on, incurred by or asserted as a result of or relating to: (a) any noncompliance by Subscriber with the terms and conditions hereof; (b) any third-party actions related to Subscriber's receipt and use of the Information, whether authorized or unauthorized under the Agreement. Each party warrants and represents and will indemnify and hold harmless (and in every case, Nasdaq shall be permitted to solely defend and settle) another party (including Nasdaq) and their officers, directors, employees and other agents, against any Claims or Losses arising from, involving or relating to a claim of infringement or other violation of an intellectual property right by the indemnifying party, its actions or omissions, equipment or other property. This right is conditioned on the indemnified party giving prompt written notice to the indemnifying party (as does not prejudice the defense) of the Claims or Losses and providing cooperation in the defense of the Claims or Losses (without waiver of attorney-client, work-product or other legal privilege, or disclosure of information legally required to be kept confidential).

10. PERSONAL DATA. Subscriber acknowledges that Nasdaq, in the course of providing services to Subscriber, may process Personal Data (as defined in the The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC Vendor Agreement for UTP Plan Services ("Vendor Agreement")) in the performance of services or in support of its rights (including, but not limited to, its audit and usage review rights) under the Vendor Agreement. Subscriber shall provide to Vendor or its designee such Personal Data (including, but not limited to, information regarding Subscriber or, for Subscribers that are firms, information regarding individual users of the Information) as reasonably requested by Nasdaq to make Information available to Subscriber, perform Nasdaq's services under the Vendor Agreement, and/or enforce Nasdaq's rights (including, but not limited to, its audit and usage review rights) under the Vendor Agreement, and Vendor shall provide such information to Nasdaq or its designee. Provisions for the processing of such data are set forth in the Vendor Agreement. With respect to individuals whose Personal Data is processed by Nasdaq and/or its service providers, the current publicly-posted Privacy Policy identified on the UTP Plan website located at www.utpplan.com, or its successor website, shall apply to such processing. To the extent that the Subscriber is a legal entity established in the European Economic Area (“EEA”), transfers of Personal Data to a Vendor (or its designee) outside of the EEA in connection with this Agreement shall be governed by the Data Processing Addendum of the Vendor Agreement, which is incorporated herein by reference mutatis mutandis, with the personal data exporter being the Subscriber and the personal data importer being the Vendor. Transfers of personal data from Vendor to Nasdaq shall be governed by the relevant provisions of the Vendor Agreement.

11. TERMINATION. Subscriber acknowledges that Nasdaq, when required to do so in fulfillment of statutory obligations, may by notice to Vendor unilaterally limit or terminate the right of any or all Persons to receive or use the Information and that Vendor will immediately comply with any such notice and will terminate or limit the furnishing of the Information and confirm such compliance by notice to Nasdaq. Any affected Person will have available to it such procedural protections as are provided by the Act and applicable rules thereunder. In addition to terminations permitted under the Vendor's agreement, this Agreement may be terminated by Subscriber with thirty (30) days written notice to Vendor and by Nasdaq with thirty (30) days written notice either to Vendor or Subscriber. Nasdaq may also alter any term of this Agreement with ninety (90) days written notice either to Vendor or Subscriber, and any use after such date is deemed acceptance of the new terms. In the event of Subscriber breach, discovery of the untruth of any representation of Subscriber, or where directed by the SEC in its regulatory authority, Nasdaq may terminate this Agreement with not less than three (3) days written notice to Subscriber provided either by Nasdaq or Vendor.

12. AMENDMENTS/AGREEMENT. Except as otherwise provided herein, no provision of this Agreement may be amended, modified or waived. No failure on the part of Nasdaq or Subscriber to exercise, no delay in exercising and no course of dealing with respect to any right, power or privilege under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right, power or privilege preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege under this Agreement. If any of the provisions of this Agreement or application thereof to any individual, entity or circumstance is held invalid or unenforceable, the remainder of this Agreement, or the application of such terms or provisions to individuals, entities or circumstances other than those as to which they are held invalid or unenforceable, shall not be affected thereby and each such term and provision of this Agreement shall be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law. In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Agreement and of the Vendor's agreement, the terms of this Agreement shall prevail as between Nasdaq and Subscriber.

13. REQUIREMENTS OF SELF-REGULATORY ORGANIZATION; ACTIONS TO BE TAKEN IN FULFILLMENT OF STATUTORY OBLIGATIONS. (a) Subscriber acknowledges that in the United States: (i) Nasdaq is registered with the SEC as national securities exchanges pursuant to Section 6 of the Act, and FINRA is registered with the SEC as a national securities association pursuant to 15A of the Act; (ii) FINRA and Nasdaq have a statutory obligation to protect investors and the public interest, and to ensure that quotation information supplied to investors and the public is fair and informative, and not discriminatory, fictitious or misleading; (iii) Section 19(g)(1) of the Act mandates that FINRA and Nasdaq comply with the UTP Plan Requirements; (iv) Nasdaq has jurisdiction to enforce compliance with certain of the UTP Plan Requirements; (v) FINRA has jurisdiction to enforce compliance with certain of the UTP Plan Requirements; and (vi) Nasdaq is obligated to offer terms that are not unreasonably discriminatory between Subscribers, subject to applicable UTP Plan Requirements. Accordingly, Subscriber agrees that Nasdaq, when required to do so in fulfillment of its statutory obligations, may, temporarily or permanently, unilaterally condition, modify or terminate the right of any or all individuals or entities to receive or use the Information. Nasdaq shall undertake reasonable efforts to notify Subscriber of any such condition, modification or termination, and Subscriber shall promptly comply with any such notice within such period of time as may be determined in good UTP Plan Subscriber Agreement 2019-1B 5 faith by Nasdaq to be necessary, consistent with its statutory obligations. Any Person that receives such a notice shall have available to it such procedural protections as are provided to it by the Act and the applicable rules thereunder. (b) If Subscriber is a member of a Nasdaq market, then Subscriber expressly acknowledges and agrees that (i) this Agreement does not limit or reduce in any way Subscriber's obligations and responsibilities as a member of any applicable Nasdaq market; (ii) this Agreement does not in any way alter the procedures or standards generally applicable to disciplinary or other actions taken by Nasdaq to enforce compliance with, or impose sanctions for violations of, the UTP Plan Requirements; and (iii) the nonpayment of amounts due under this Agreement could result in the suspension or cancellation of Subscriber's membership in a Nasdaq market in accordance with the UTP Plan Requirements.

14. GOVERNING LAWS; CONSTRUCTION. This Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with, and the validity and performance hereof shall be governed by, the laws of the State of New York, without reference to principles of conflicts of laws thereof. Any dispute that cannot be amicably settled that arises out of this Agreement shall be referred to arbitration and shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association. All such proceedings shall be held in New York City, NY, and shall be conducted in the English language, which shall also be the language of the documents.

By providing an email address, Subscriber agrees that any receipt received by Nasdaq from Subscriber's service provider or internet computer server indicating that the email was received shall be deemed proof that Subscriber received the message.
